There are four main components to a Marketing Automation Platform. They are the ability for marketers to: Manage Contacts, Manage Campaigns, Manage Leads and Measure Impact. Each of these components contains up to three subcomponents, and often each subcomponent group several related parts.